Dear Guest,

We are excited that you are visiting KIPP Delta College Preparatory School and will have the opportunity to see our students and teachers in action. Because we would like our students to view you as a role model for their own behavior on class trips, and to ensure that we do not disrupt a moment of our students' precious time in class, we ask that you respect the following guidelines:

- Please turn off or silence your cellular phone before entering any classrooms.
- Professional dress is required at all times.
- While observing, we ask that you are silent. If you wish to discuss something you observed with a colleague, please do so in the hallway.
- Gum and candy are not allowed on school grounds.
- Students should not be distracted while a teacher is instructing. Feel free to approach students during independent study time, passing periods, or at lunch.

If you have questions about anything you have observed during your visit to DCPS, please don't hesitate to contact our School Director, Scott Shirey (sshirey@deltacollegeprep.org).

Again, thank you for joining us at KIPP Delta College Preparatory School!

Sincerely,

KIPP DCPS Staff
